Daniel Cros

Las Vueltas que de la Vida (Rosazul)

By Morton Shlabotnik

Daniel Cros is a Spanish pianist and singer who, after a career in rock, discovered the music of one of his country's former colonies, Cuba. His fifth album, recorded with Cuban expatriates as well as jazzmen from Cros' homeland, conjures up the florid yet bittersweet emotions and rhythmic tempi of Cuba in an elegant set of original songs built around Cros' piano and lonesome sketches of Spain from his accompanists.
